

World Declaration of Family Rights

1

Any child has the right to maintain an unimpeded relation with both natural parents.

2

Child care is the duty and responsibility of both parents, in mutual equality.

3

The State and its administration are not allowed to discriminate against parents by their sex, the nature of their relation, or the way their biological parenthood has been established.

*This Declaration has been established by
The World Committee of Family Rights*